The Working Disabled Program provides full-scope medical coverage to those who are eligible.

In order to qualify for the Working Disabled Program you must:

- Be a legal resident of the U.S., living in California
- Be considered federally disabled
- Be employed or self-employed with countable earnings below 250% of the Federal Poverty Level.

Other Important Information:

- Medi-Cal is California's name for the federal Medicaid Program. Medi-Cal provides health coverage for low-income families and people with disabilities.
- If eligible, Medi-Cal will pay the Medicare Part B premium and you will qualify for the Medicare Part D Low-Income Subsidy.
- You may be eligible for up to three months of retroactive coverage.
